

GRAMMAR REVISION

WEEK BEGINNING MAY 18th

MONDAY

5. Use an apostrophe to show ownership. You will need to change the word order. The first one has been done.

(a) the siren of the police car
the police car's siren

(b) the teacher of children

(c) the uniforms of the soldiers

(d) the office of the secretary

(e) the bells of the churches

TUESDAY

4. How many syllables are in each of these words? (Remember to look for the vowel sounds because the number of syllables is the same as the number of vowel sounds.)

Word	Syllables
jumper away looking return compress

Word	Syllables
person instruction spring letter cartoon

Word	Syllables
grown traffic play conversation hillside

WEDNESDAY

1. Indicate the actual words spoken in each sentence with quotation marks. Ensure that you use any necessary capital letters, full stops and commas correctly.
- (a) People under 18 years of age are not permitted to buy cigarettes stated the politician.
 - (b) We are fully informed about the dangers of smoking the pupils replied.
 - (c) The teenagers yelled leave us alone we know what we're doing.
 - (d) The boy's parents cried we had no idea that he was stealing money to buy cigarettes.
 - (e) Smoking is not permitted at this school by anyone at any time announced the principal.

THURSDAY

(b) How many syllables in each word?

- | | |
|---------------------|--------------------|
| (i) spring _____ | (ii) cartoon _____ |
| (iii) bike _____ | (iv) person _____ |
| (v) letter _____ | (vi) looking _____ |
| (vii) swallow _____ | |

FRIDAY

7. Circle the correct words in each sentence.
- (a) When its/it's going to rain, my cat wipes its/it's paws over its/it's ears.
 - (b) Whose/who's inline skates are those?
 - (c) I think they're/their Brent's.
 - (d) It's/Its sad the kitten has to leave its/it's mother.
 - (e) I'm not sure whose/who's coming to my party.
 - (f) They're/Their teacher said they're/there all going on school camp.